

Please do not grant Bell South the right to refuse to supply dsl service to independent ISPs. I live in California and I have been associated with my current ISP Sonic.net for over 6 years and they have provided me with excellent service at a reasonable fee without all of the bloat and clutter that comes with SBC Yahoo or AOL.